

Friday, April 10, 2026

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Annual Continuum of Cerebral Palsy Care Through Adulthood Virtual Conference

Keynote Address:

Reframing Cerebral Palsy as a Lifelong Disability

Mark Peterson, PhD

Research Professor at the University of Michigan Department of Medicine and Rehabilitation
His work focuses on understanding factors that influence health and life expectancy among individuals aging with disabilities. He has published over 160 peer reviewed articles.

CEUs available at no cost: PT, OT, Counseling, Nursing & SLP (5.5 contact hours - pending licensing board approvals)

Register here: https://us06web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_jCvLBKcWRM2RNH7uHwFqkw

Session Topics:

- Employment
- Behavioral Health
- Pain
- Sexuality
- Augmentative & Alternative Communication

For more information email:
HSC-NM-LEND@salud.unm.edu

Sponsored by: The NM CP Task Force & NM Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental and Related Disabilities (NM LEND)

<https://hsc.unm.edu/cdd/training-programs/nmlend/>

UNM Transdisciplinary Evaluation & Support Clinic

<https://hsc.unm.edu/medicine/departments/family-community/clinical-practice/teasc.html>

UNM Continuum of Care

<https://hsc.unm.edu/medicine/departments/pediatrics/divisions/continuum-of-care/>